Please note that we cannot routinely deal with special diets other than those listed. We encourage guests to self-manage whenever possible and there is a small fridge on each floor which can be used to assist you. If you have other requirements, it is essential you check if we can manage this by speaking to our cook well in advance of your stay. There may be a surcharge of £3 a day for any extra preparation time. Meals are prepared in a kitchen where nuts are used.

Important

Our desire is that every person who stays is given respect, privacy, space and the freedom to find growth and support at their own pace. Often people come here seeking retreat from very demanding circumstances and caring roles. In making this booking you are agreeing not to offer to, or seek from any other guest, prayer ministry, advice, counselling, or spiritual guidance. The Green Pastures team are available for this. This also means taking special care about how much of your 'story' you share with others.
