

We have a mix of rooms: twin, single, double and also a family room. Bedding and towels are provided. Most of our rooms have en-suite facilities. There are bathrooms, toilets and facilities for making hot drinks on both floors and a payphone in reception. All guests stay full board and if you would like to go out for the day we can make up a packed lunch.

a typical week . . .

We have a time of prayer every morning and evening, except Sunday when we encourage guests to attend local churches. We share Communion twice a week with a healing service once a week. Quiet days, open to non-residents and guests, are held regularly.

Once or twice a month we run themed weeks and weekends. For a full programme of events, please ring the office 01202 764776 or go to our website www.green-pastures.org
